EXAMINATION GUIDELINES & EVALUATION POLICIES

1. Examination Revaluation and Recounting Procedure

Students who are not satisfied with their semester end examination grades may apply for paper revaluation or recounting within 15 calendar days from the date of declaration of results on the college portal.

The revaluation fee is Rs. 500 per theoretical course, and recounting fee is Rs. 200 per course.

If the difference between the original marks and the revaluated marks is 5% or more, the higher mark will be adopted as the revised final grade.

Revaluation is strictly not applicable for practical laboratory examinations, seminar evaluations, and project viva-voce examinations.

2. Backlog Examinations & Supplementary Schedule

Supplementary examinations for clearing backlog courses are conducted twice each academic year, concurrently with the regular Odd and Even semester end examinations.

A student with backlogs can register for a maximum of 4 backlog theory subjects per examination session alongside their regular current-semester subjects.

Students must submit the supplementary exam registration form and pay a backlog examination fee of Rs. 350 per subject before the notified deadline.

3. Hall Ticket Eligibility & Issuance

Hall tickets for end-semester examinations will be issued 3 days prior to the examination start date via the student portal.

Eligibility criteria for hall ticket release:

a) Verified minimum 75% attendance (or approved condonation).

b) Full settlement of tuition fees and library dues.

c) No pending disciplinary suspension orders from the Proctorial Board.

4. Malpractice Penalties and Proctorial Action

Possession of mobile phones, smartwatches, programmable calculators, cheat sheets, or unauthorized electronic gadgets inside the exam hall constitutes serious malpractice.

Category 1 Malpractice (Possession without use): Cancellation of that specific paper.

Category 2 Malpractice (Copying / Use of external aid): Cancellation of all written exams of that session plus debarment from examinations for 1 full academic year.
